ELECTRONIC DELIVERY ELECTION FORM

To be completed by each owner, joint owner (if applicable), and annuitant (if different than owner) who wishes to opt-in to electronic transmission of policy documents.

Voluntary Electronic Consent Disclosure

If you consent, Protective Life Insurance Company (“the Company”) will transmit documents related to your policy by electronic means, to the extent that electronic transmission is consistent with applicable state and federal law, and subject to the Company’s ability to transmit such documents electronically.

Any document sent by electronic means, and which complies with applicable law, will have the same force and effect as if that document was sent in paper format. Documents eligible for electronic submission may include, but are not limited to: applications, policies, amendments, endorsements, statements, confirmation letters, prospectus and fund information (if applicable), and other notices.

The Company will transmit documents to you electronically only if you consent.

Your consent is voluntary.

The Company will not charge you more if you do not consent.

If you elected electronic transmissions in the past, that authorization does not obligate the same procedure regarding this policy as well.

If you decide that you want to receive documents electronically, the Company will provide one paper copy per year of any document, at no charge to you, upon your request.

You can change your mind at any time and have the Company transmit documents via paper mail by notifying us through any one of these methods.

- Contact Customer Service by calling toll free 800-456-6330
- Mail, fax, or email a letter of instruction, using the contact information above
- Submit a message online at myaccount.protective.com

You can correct or change the email address used to send you documents by notifying the Company by any one of these methods.
