REQUIRED CALIFORNIA DISCLOSURE – For Universal Life Policies with No-Lapse Guarantees

This policy is guaranteed to stay in force for a specified number of years as long as you meet the requirements of the Policy, including the Minimum Monthly Premium provision found in the policy contract. This provision is also known as a no-lapse guarantee, and a general description of the provision is included in the Narrative Summary section of the Basic Illustration.

While this policy provides a no-lapse guarantee, it may provide nonforfeiture benefits, such as cash surrender values, which are less than those that would be provided if the guarantee were issued as a separate policy, such as a term policy. If a separate term policy has higher nonforfeiture benefits, the premiums for the separate policy might be higher than the premiums for the no-lapse guarantee provided in this policy. Therefore, when considering the purchase of this policy, you should compare the value of higher nonforfeiture benefits, such as cash surrender values, versus the premiums required to keep your insurance coverage in force.

REQUIRED SOUTH CAROLINA DISCLOSURE – For Universal Life Policies with No-Lapse Guarantees

If there is no policy debt or partial surrenders, this policy is guaranteed to stay in force during the no lapse period as long as you have paid the required minimum premiums. This guarantee could be provided by a separate policy (such as a term policy). However, the nonforfeiture benefits (such as cash surrender value) in this policy may be significantly less valuable than those provided by the separate policy. So, if you fail to pay a premium within a specified period of time from its due date or otherwise cause this policy to terminate early, the benefits paid to you upon termination could be much less than would customarily be paid if provided by the separate policy.

When thinking about purchasing this policy, you should consider the tradeoff you may be making between having significantly smaller nonforfeiture benefits (such as a cash surrender value) available to you upon surrender of the policy versus the reduction in premium, if any, you may receive for not having these benefits.
